$500 REWARD FOR WOMEN WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhoea, Female Weakness, Protrusion, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

They have the most remarkable record of cures made by this world-famed remedy ever placed to the credit of any preparation especially designed for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

A beautiful Georgia lady, Vice-President of the East End Pinneries Club, of Savannah, and prominent socially there, relates the following experience: "You certainly have produced the finest medicine for suffering women that is to be had in the country. I want to recommend it especially to mothers. I was seventeen years old when my darling boy was born. He was very weak and sick for a long time, and it seemed I could not get my strength back. My sister-in-law bought me a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription after I had tried several of the other remedies which are so much advertised, and found no relief. I had little faith in the medicine at the time and was so weak and sick that I felt discouraged, but within a week after I had commenced taking your 'Prescription' I was like a different woman. New life and vitality seemed to come with each succeeding day, and in a few weeks, I was in fine health, and a happy, hearty woman. My boy is now two years old, and, thanks to your splendid medicine, I am enjoying perfect health. If at any time I feel tired or in need of a tonic, a few doses of your 'Favorite Prescription' recuperates me at once. My address is No. 511 Jones Street, East, Savannah, Ga."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs.

The Common Sense Medical Adviser, 708 large pages in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a ladies' laxative. No other medicine equals them for gentleness and thoroughness.

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propagates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy cloud of hair; yet if the scalps of these same men once become infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. Send 30c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

ROBERT E. LEE.

Robert Edward Lee was the son of Henry Lee, the celebrated cavalry leader of the revolution—better known as "Light-Horse Harry"—and Anne Hill Carter, daughter of Charles Carter, of Shirley, on the James. He was born at Stratford on the Potomac, in Westmoreland county, on January 19, 1807. After a thorough classical and mathematical training he was admitted into the United States Military Academy at West Point in 1825, and graduated in 1829, second in his class, and without ever having received a demerit; was assigned to duty as second lieutenant of engineers, married in 1832 Mary Custis, daughter of George Washington Parke Custis, the adopted son of General Washington; promoted to first lieutenant in 1836, and to captain in 1838; served in the Mexican war (1846-'47) as chief engineer of General Scott's army with such distinction that he was brevetted colonel; was superintendent of West Point from 1852 to 1855; commanded in person the detachment of United States Marines which captured the notorious John Brown at Harper's Ferry in 1859; appointed colonel of cavalry March, 1861, but resigned April 20th to offer his services to his native State, which had seceded April 17, 1861. He was immediately appointed commander-in-chief of all her forces. His military career need not here be traced further than to say he entered the Confederate service as brigadier-general, and surrendered at Appomattox, April 9, 1865, as commander-in-chief of all the armies of the Confederacy. He carried the destiny of the Confederacy on the point of his sword, and with his surrender it fell.

Refusing all gifts of houses, estates and money, which were offered him in this country and Europe, and declining positions of princely salary, he accepted, in the summer of 1865, the presidency of Washington College (now Washington and Lee University), Lexington, Va., having resolved to consecrate the remainder of his life to the great work of training the youth of the land he had loved and served so well. Thus again did he illustrate that precept which he early gave to his sons, and which had been the leading factor in his own character, that "Duty is the sublimest word in the English language."

He died in Lexington October 12, 1870, and his remains were buried in the college chapel, where they still rest.

Just before his death he edited the third edition of his father's "Memoirs of the War of '76," to which he prefixed a life of the author.—Selected.

"STONEWALL" JACKSON.

Thomas Jonathan Jackson, the world-renowned general, was born at Clarksburg, Va., January 21, 1824. He graduated at West Point in 1846, was assigned to the artillery branch of the service, and at once placed on duty with the army in Mexico, where he gained great distinction, being successfully brevetted captain and major. In 1851 he resigned his commission in the army, and was appointed Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy and Instructor in Artillery in the Virginia Military Institute, at Lexington, and there he remained until the civil war began. Entering the Confederate service as colonel, he rapidly passed through the intermediate grades, and became lieutenant-general.

His sobriquet of "Stonewall" originated at the battle of Manassas. General Bee, in rallying his men, pointed to Jackson and his brigade, and shouted, "Look! there is Jackson standing like a stone wall!"

In a reconnaissance between hostile lines after nightfall, at the battle of Chancellorsville, he and his staff were taken for federal scouts and fired on by Confederates. Nearly the entire staff were killed or wounded, and Jackson's left arm was so shattered as to necessitate amputation; pneumonia set in, and he died at Guinea station, near Fredericksburg, Va., May 10, 1863.—[Selected.]

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough fearfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three $1 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds. It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store."

Mr. Wm. S. Crane, of California.

Mr. Wm. S. Crane, of California, Md., suffered for years from rheumatism and lumbago. He was finally advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did and it effected a complete cure. This liniment is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Tonic to the System.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous Little Pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Bob Moore, of Lafayette, Ind., says: "No use talking. DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach. Early Risers cured me. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are proved to be the long-sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the most reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold by all druggists.

Women Fight a Duel.

The Rue Bondy in Paris was the scene Monday night of a fatal and mysterious tragedy which the police are at present engaged in unraveling. Shortly after 5 o'clock two cabs dashed up at full speed the drivers lashing their horses as if racing with each other. They pulled up suddenly, and out of each cab jumped a woman. They immediately made a rush at one another, and began clawing each other's faces with their nails. The cabmen looked on calmly, and soon a noisy crowd closed round the combatants, urging them on. The younger woman who was only about 17 years of age, suddenly exclaimed: "One or the other of us must die!" and whipped out a small gilt dagger from her bosom. Her antagonist pulled a long hatpin from her hat, and a desperate duel began between the two infuriated women, whose hands were covered with blood. With a lightning movement the younger woman then plunged her dagger into the other's body. The woman fell and died immediately. One of the bystanders, a musician employed at an adjoining theater in the Porte St. Martin, rushed forward to secure the murderers, but with a furious blow she stabbed him also, and jumped into the cab which had brought her to the spot, and drove rapidly away. The murdered woman's body was conveyed to the morgue, and the injured man to the hospital. Yesterday afternoon the police succeeded in arresting the aggressor, who gave her name as Clementine Ponceaux, a steel polisher. She swore before the magistrate that she did not even know the woman she had killed, and who, she alleged, attacked her without provocation.
